

Gwen Gissendanner

My name is Gwen Gissendanner. I am a cradle Episcopalian who grew up in Atlanta, Georgia. I married my husband Tom in the Episcopal church in 1972. We have three daughters, 8 grandchildren, and we are expecting our first great grandchild this coming spring.

Before moving to Savannah in 2015, we were members St. Matthews Episcopal Church in Huntsville AL for over 10 years. While we were there, we both completed the 4-year Education for Ministries (EFM) course. We additionally attended Cursillo 164 and remained very active in our reunion groups. I was a member of Daughters of the King, ECW, and the Altar Guild. I also served on the Vestry for 4 years including serving as both Junior and Senior Wardens.

After moving to Savannah, I joined the Altar Guild, the Prayer Guild, and a reunion group. I have been involved in The Market at Westridge where I served assistant treasurer to the Market for the last two years.

I look forward to serving on the vestry.
