

Children's Minister Susanne O'Day spent most of her growing-up years in Marietta, GA but has lived in Savannah since 2013. She has two sons, Archer (11) and Theo (7), who are the joys of her life. They live in an 1931 home in the Ardsley Park area with Salem, an active cattle dog mix and a black cat named Wolfie. In 2010, Susanne received a B.S. in Music Management from Georgia State University in Atlanta. Past work experiences were as thoracic surgery practice administrator in Boston, private school administrative assistant, communications for short term rentals, piano teacher, substitute teacher, and children's ministry director. She enjoys house projects, yard work, time in nature, reading, healthy cooking, and wandering through thrift or antique stores.
