

Parish Administrator Susanne O'Day is from Marietta, GA and has lived in Savannah since 2013. She has two sons, Archer (10) and Theo (6), who are the joys of her life. She graduated in 2010 with a B.S. in Music Management from Georgia State University in Atlanta. Some of her past work experiences were as hospital practice administrator in Boston, private school administrative assistant, guest communications for short term rentals, piano teacher, substitute teacher, and children's ministry director. Susanne enjoys time in nature, walking her cattle dog mix (Salem), singing, playing piano, reading, cooking, and wandering through thrift or antique stores.
