

Priest Associate, The Rev. Don Hands is a retired priest living in the Landings since 2011 with his wife and artist, Lydia Bishop. Ordained in 1979, he has served at parishes in Pittsburgh, Milwaukee and Savannah. He was Chaplain at Saint John's on the Lake, a retirement community in Milwaukee, on the shores of Lake Michigan, for 5 years. He was a Jesuit from 1961-1970. He studied at Fordham University, Columbia University and the University of Buffalo. He is a licensed clinical psychologist with a certificate in Mental Health and Aging from the University of Wisconsin. He taught at Marquette and Duquesne. He is interested in the interface of religion, Christian spirituality and psychology. His book, Spiritual Wholeness for Clergy (1994), sold over 17,000 copies. He is glad to be a part of St. Peter's.